Spectator Code of Behaviour – see appendix 4
Judge Code of Behaviour – see Appendix 5
Committee’s Code of Behaviour – see Appendix 6
Participant Code of Behaviour – see Appendix 7.
- Coaches and judges will also abide by the codes of ethics as endorsed by the National Coach Accreditation Scheme (NCAS), the National Officials Accreditation Scheme (NOAS) and adopted by Springwood Boys and Girls Club.
 - Coaches Code of Ethics– see Appendix 8.
 - Official’s Code of Ethics – see Appendix 9.

7. POLICY BREACHES AND CONSEQUENCES

Disciplinary action will be taken by Springwood Boys and Girls Club against anyone who is found to be in breach of the codes of behaviour or ethics contained in this policy.

Disciplinary action will be administered in a three-phase education process designed to assist members with defining their role at Springwood Boys and Girls Club. The three phases dealing with breaches are designed to provide ample opportunity for correcting undesirable behaviour in a continual education process.

Phase one – Club to counsel member (verbal warning).

Phase one applies to the first breach of a code of behaviour or ethics. The coach or committee member gives the participant a verbal warning. This may also include a second warning where the coach and coordinator or committee believe that the behaviour may change with extra warnings.

Phase two – Letter of warning.

Phase two applies to a further breach of the code of behaviour following either first or second warnings in Phase one.

- The relevant personnel (witness to breach) will complete an incident report (appendix 10 and 11) advising of a breach of a code and inform the Coaching coordinator or Management Committee. This report is to be placed in a secure location in the office.
- The coordinator or committee member will write a letter of warning highlighting the severity of the breach and which codes of behaviour are being breached. This letter will also include information regarding further action if the Code of Behaviour is breached again. This letter will be written within 1 week of the breach.

Phase three – Suspension from classes and/or activities.

Phase three applies to a further breach of the Code of Behaviour following a warning letter.

- The relevant personnel (witness to breach) will complete another incident report (appendix 10 and 11) advising of a breach of a code and inform the Coaching coordinator or Management Committee. This report is to be placed in a secure location in the office with previous documentation.
- The Coaching Coordinator or Management Committee will inform the offender in writing, detailing the breach and the consequences. This will occur within 1 week of the breach. A copy will be provided to the Management Committee to inform them that phase three has been initiated.

- The offender may be suspended from attending classes and/or other activities for a period deemed reasonable by the Management Committee and in line with the severity of the misconduct and age of the offender.
- Action may proceed faster at the discretion of Springwood Boys and Girls Club if breach of codes is deemed to be of a serious nature (For example, obscene language, threatening behaviour, any form of racial vilification or physical acts, harassment of a judge).

Phase Four- Membership removed

Phase four applies to further breaches of a code of behaviour or ethics in a 12- month period.

- The relevant personnel will provide Springwood Boys and Girls Club Management Committee with an incident report advising of a third breach of a code.
- The Management Committee will inform the offender in writing, detailing the breach and advising that club membership has been removed. A copy will be provided to the Management Committee to inform them that Phase 4 has been initiated.
- Once membership has been removed, the offender will not be permitted to participate in any gymnastics affiliated with Springwood Boys and Girls Club.
- The offender can apply to Springwood Boys and Girls Club for membership at the start of the next year. Membership renewal will be at the discretion of Springwood Boys and Girls Club.

Monitoring and reporting

The relevant personnel will provide all incident reports to the Management Committee on a need's basis. The Management Committee will provide a summary sheet to the Management Committee on a need's basis using the template provided at Appendix 11.

Records retained should be kept for an initial period of 12 months and should include:

- a record of misconduct and breach of policy
- a record of the action taken
- records of interviews taken;
- information revealed and facts identified

8. CONFIDENTIALITY

The Springwood Boys and Girls Club management and officers responsible for implementing this Behaviour Management Policy will keep confidential the names and details related to breaches of the codes of behaviour and ethics unless disclosure is necessary as part of the disciplinary or corrective process.
